

Stars mark single-trial conditions (n < 3), where spread is not estimable: they show RMSE to the reference mean, which omits the sigma_ref term W2 carries — not comparable to the lines. GaitEncoder has no GRF, so it appears in the angle panels only.